Toni Linde brought the Board up to date as far as the Arts Extravaganza is concerned. Much has been done already:

- ❖ 2 articles in the Gold Country Times
- ❖ 100 posters and 3,000 handbills
- ❖ 12,000 Volcano Telephone flyers
- ❖ Taste Restaurant's bill flyer
- ❖ Various websites

Coming up will be:

- ❖ TSPN report with Millie Butler
- ❖ KCRA Channel 3 Noon News Report with Over the Edge
- ❖ Highlights cover photo and article (Ledger-Dispatch)
- ❖ HomeTown Radio interview
- ❖ Coupon Book almost complete—will be printed shortly
- ❖ Liquor license to be finalized

There are a few things left to do and items to still pick up or purchase. The Board also approved an expenditure of $100 to cover table rentals for the event.

Nick Ragusano requested an additional amount for tables for the Cabaret Performances in November. This was due to a change of order. An additional $549.00 is needed to cover the change order. A motion was made, seconded, and approved for this additional amount.

Auditions were held and letters have been sent to performers. Nick requested an amount of $250.00 to cover the cost of an accompanist for the event as well as two rehearsals. A motion was made, seconded, and approved to cover this amount.

The rest of the meeting was moved to "The Park at Hanford Courte" so that the Board could view the grounds and make suggestions as to how the Arts Extravaganza should be set up.

The next meeting has been set for Tuesday, September 21, 2008, at 3:30 pm, in Millie Butler's classroom at Amador High School.

The arts are the foundation of all education.
